

Cadmore Carollers 2025 – for Clarion

The Cadmore Carollers, a motley group of enthusiastic but not necessarily very talented singers, have traipsed around Cadmore End, Bolter End and Cadmore Common for the three nights before Christmas for the last fifty years or more.

We go out, whatever the weather, and knock at every door, sing carols, and are sometimes invited in for a seasonal drink and mince pie. It is a great way to spend the three evenings in the run up to the big day itself, full of festive cheer and community spirit. It can be absolutely magical on frosty, moonlit nights; if it rains, the camaraderie keeps us going!

Our numbers have been dwindling over recent years, but we would love to keep this tradition going. Anyone is welcome to join us, it is a wonderful experience for children and teenagers too. If you would like to find out more, or would like to join us for any of the three nights, please get in touch with Tanya Sims (07804 946236), Lilli May (07950 005233) or Czarme Pooley (07951 950751)
